

RJ “Motherfuckin’ Beast Mode” Hill

Experience:

I computer all the fucking live-long day. Check out how dirt nasty my PC is (PC is what we call computers these days you old fuck). Any questions?

Well here are some answers:

1. Yes I’m 1337 as hell.
2. Yes I can hack anyone’s facebook (as long as they leave their shit logged in on their computer and walk away from it for a bit).
3. Yes I only take 6-figure salary offers. (No I won’t take $99,999.99 per year - I JUST SAID THAT!)

Look at how old my computer is, it’s too legit to quit and so am I, until I quit your slacker-ass company in a month for better monies elsewhere. I’ll hack the fuck out of your facebook and tell your friends that you pee the bed and fart at funerals before I leave though.

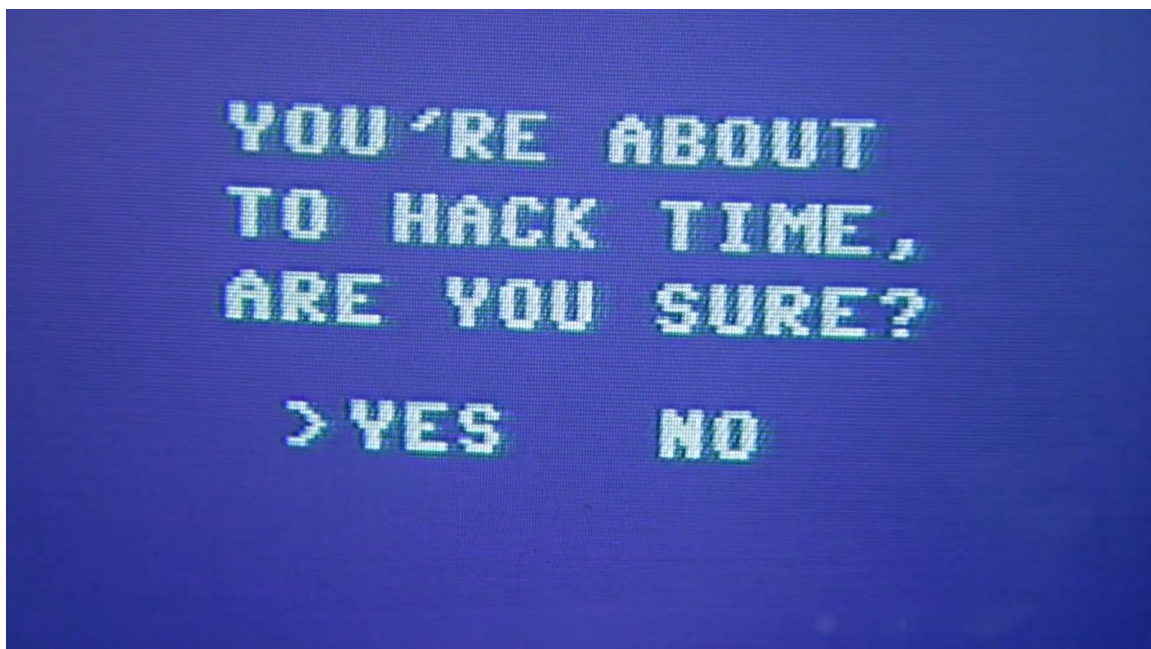

Wanna see me hack the Gibson? I bet you do!
